General Information

The Honors College provides a transformative undergraduate education by:

- providing cutting-edge academic and co-curricular opportunities;
- mentoring and inspiring students to excel through advanced research, community engagement, international study, innovation and entrepreneurship, and cultural literacy;
- developing professional skills through interdisciplinary problem-solving pedagogy, team-based learning, mentoring by professionals from the external community, and leadership training; and
- fostering integrity, responsibility, and civility.

Privileges and Benefits

Honors college student enjoy certain privileges, including:

- Priority registration
- The notation "Graduated through the Honors College" on the transcript
- Honors housing in Parkview Hall
- Graduate-student library privileges
- Honors-only competitive scholarships
- Participation in community partnerships for service learning and engagement
- Support to present work at national research conferences
- Unique internships and job opportunities
- Facilities and resources for innovative projects
- Special recognition at commencement ceremonies

Location

The Honors College offices are located in DM 233 on the Modesto A. Maidique Campus.

Admissions Criteria

Admission to the Honors College is selective. Students are admitted only in the fall term.

Freshmen: Students with a 3.5 weighted high school GPA and commensurate scores on the SAT or ACT are eligible for admission to the College.

Transfer and Continuing FIU Students: Students who have maintained a 3.3 GPA in all college-level work are eligible for admission to the College. To be considered for admission, students must be able to complete at least 12 credits of Honors before graduating.

Fully Online Students: Students pursuing a fully online degree through FIU 2.0 may be admitted to the Honors College on a case-by-case basis in their junior year.

Academic Standing Policy

Students are required to maintain a cumulative 3.3 GPA for satisfactory standing in the Honors College.

Graduation Policy

Students will graduate through the Honors College if they have met the following criteria:

- completed all major and degree requirements for graduation from the University;
- remained continuously enrolled in Honors courses until the semester of graduation or the completion of the Honors College curriculum (whichever comes first);
- completed a minimum of six credits of Honors courses per year of enrollment in the College;
- maintained an overall minimum FIU GPA of 3.3;
- completed Honors citizenship and portfolio requirements.

Honor Policy

In the Honors College, the term "honor" refers to both academic achievement and character. Students in the College should therefore adhere to and will be held to the highest standards of personal accountability. Students whose behavior brings discredit upon themselves and/or the College or who commit acts of academic misconduct will be dismissed from the College.

Honors Opportunities

The Honors College has a wealth of co-curricular opportunities for its students. These include, among others:

- The highly developed ARCH undergraduate research program, which showcases student research in an annual, two-day FIU undergraduate research conference; subsidizes student participation in national and international conferences; provides stipends for selected students to work on faculty funded research; and regularly hosts statewide and regional conferences sponsored by external organizations.
- Study Abroad, which offers a kaleidoscope of options, currently comprising Cambodia-Vietnam, France, Italy, Japan, Costa Rica, and Spain. These thematic programs include preparatory coursework and generally include a service-research component.
- Honors Education in the Arts (HEARTS), a program that injects the arts throughout the curriculum and provides students with free quality cultural opportunities at the area's top venues. The program has also spawned a student-led clubs, including a highly respected cappella choir, a poetry club, a book club, and a film club. HEARTS also offers a one-week cultural trip to New York City.
- DESGIN, a student organization, paired with the curriculum, dedicated to innovation and creative design.
- Truman Little White House scholarships for students to attend the annual Key West symposium on public affairs.
- A Community Engagement Partnership with the contiguous under-served small City of Sweetwater. This cutting-edge program includes student internships, service opportunities, jobs, and research components.

Curriculum

Honors students pursue any major in the university while simultaneously completing an independent Honors College curriculum of 6 credits annually. The first year addresses epistemology and ontology while stressing multi-disciplinary approaches to solving intellectual and practical problems. Students in the second year explore self and other in team-taught classes that incorporate the cutting edge "Reacting to the Past" and "City as Text" pedagogies. In the upper division, students have several options:

- Participating in an Honors Study Abroad program. These require a 3-credit spring seminar and a 3-credit four-week international experience that goes well beyond cultural tourism to explore serious themes in depth.
- Completing a 6-credit Honors seminar from over two dozen interdisciplinary Honors offerings, covering everything from social entrepreneurship to pre-med and pre-law prep to exploring the Everglades.
- Completing an Honors thesis-quality research project through the Advanced Research and Creativity in Honors (ARCH) program, culminating in conference presentation in an Honors Study Abroad program. These require a 3-credit spring seminar and a 3-credit four-week international experience that goes well beyond cultural tourism to explore serious themes in depth.

Year One

IDH 1001, IDH 1002 The Origin of Ideas and the Idea of Origins (6). The course is designed to encourage students to become self-conscious learners, exploring not only the what, but also the how and why of knowing. The course focuses on the nature of truth and reality and our role in the world each of us has constructed.

IDH 1931 Honors Introduction and Leadership Seminar (1). The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the essentials needed for success at FIU and Honors. This year-long course will focus on writing, research, First-year, and leadership essentials.

Year Two

IDH 2003, IDH 2004 Inhabiting Other Lives (6). This seminar exposes students to issues of human commonality and diversity, and invites them to investigate and to understand the interconnectedness of various cultures, times and life experiences.

Year Three

IDH 3034, IDH 3035 Aesthetics, Values, and Authority (6). These seminars build on the work of the first two years and allow students to work in depth on a problem or subject of personal interest or professional relevance. (See website for this year's offerings: (<http://honors.fiu.edu/students/honors-course-offerings/schedule/>))

Year Four

Option 1

IDH 4007, IDH 4008 Aesthetics, Values, and Authority (6). Students may opt to take another upper-division seminar course to complete their Honors requirements.

Option 2

Departmental Honors Thesis—Department honors courses, honors thesis, and/or capstone courses can satisfy the fourth-year requirement, with the proviso that students register their project with ARCH (see below) and present their work at the CURFIU conference in spring.

Option 3

ARCH Research—The Advanced Research and Creativity in Honors (ARCH) program pairs students and faculty for cutting-edge research. Students must present their research at the annual Conference for Undergraduate Research at FIU (CURFIU) in the spring.

Honors College Study Abroad

Students may choose to complete the fourth year of the honors curriculum through one of the College's study abroad programs. Students take a three-credit preparatory course before traveling abroad. The student will earn the remaining three credits of Honors during the trip. See http://honors.fiu.edu/study\_abrd\_programs.htm for a list of current programs.

Honors Housing

Named "Best Living and Learning Community" by Florida Leader magazine, Honors Place has always been a close-knit and welcoming community of Honors College students who live and learn together. In 2016-2017, all Honors freshmen and many other Honors students will be housed in Parkview, the university's newest and most popular residence hall. In 2017, all Honors students will be in Parkview, which will then become the Honors College Building. This new, comprehensive housing community offers unique programming and academic opportunities, a convenient location and the most sought-after amenities on campus. For more information on how to be a part of Honors Place, visit <http://honorsplace.fiu.edu/>.

Student Information Technology Centers

The student information technology centers is located in the Honors College offices. Honors students may use the computers and printers or study in the lounge area. Honors also maintains a study room in the Green Library on the Modesto A. Maidique Campus.

Honors College Career Center

Internship and job opportunities are available in our highly successful Career Center. Among other services, the Center arranges internship placements customized to student goals. It also provides resume and interviewing advice and preparation, as well as follow-up assistance.

Student Organizations

One of the strengths of the Honors College is the selection of student-led organizations, ranging from pre-professional groups to honor societies to learning communities, which bring students with common ambitions together to learn, network, and develop as leaders. For more information on our student organizations, visit <http://honors.fiu.edu/programs/>.

Graduate and Professional Pipeline Programs

Early Acceptance/Assurance Programs

The Honors College has pipeline programs with multiple professional schools, providing student an opportunity to know by the end of the sophomore year whether they will be accepted into the program of their choice (pending continued good academic performance and the outcome of pre-professional exams). These programs include:

- The Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine (FIU) Early Assurance Program
- The Lake Erie College of Medicine Early Acceptance Program in Dentistry, Pharmacy, or Osteopathy
- The FIU College of Law Early Assurance Program

3+3 Law School Program

This program with the College of Law allows eligible students to begin law school in lieu of their fourth year of undergraduate study, provided the student has completed all required course for undergraduate degree by the end of the junior year. The first year of law school qualifies as the final year of the bachelor's degree.

Mentoring

Mentoring is an important component of the Honors College experience. Faculty are all expert, committed mentors. A close mentoring relationship with a faculty/staff member or community leader can facilitate and enhance the educational or professional experience. Mentoring in the Honors College is multi-faceted. Through ARCH, students develop a close, one-on-one relationship with a research professor. The Student Program Coordinator works with students to develop leadership skills, community service programs, sites for internships and part-time jobs, and college and employment recruitment opportunities. Corporate and community partners also offer unique mentoring for selected students.

Honors Service-Research Certificate

The Service-Research Certificate (SRC) provides an opportunity for Honors College students to integrate academic research, community partnerships, and service learning into a coherent program of study. This innovative, integrative, and transformational educational approach builds on the principles of community-based research (CRB), customizing it to undergraduate students from different fields of study in order to maximize students' research skills, knowledge, leadership growth, and civic engagement. It includes courses central to an understanding of community engagement in a social and historical context. The certificate also offers students the opportunity to participate in research that positively impacts the communities in which they live, work, and study. Significantly, the certificate allows students to conduct applied research in their majors by drawing on courses offered both by the Honors College and by participating departments and/or colleges.

Requirements

To obtain this certificate, Honors College students will need to complete 18 credits, including:

Core I Prerequisite: (0 credit; one class meeting per week)

IDH 3639 Introduction to Service-Research 0

Core II Requirement: Honors-based service research course (6 credits)

Students may choose any one of the following year-long offerings (all numbered IDH 3034/4007, with varying section numbers), or new ones that may be added in the future as the service-research concept is developed further:

- Sweetwater Service-Research
- News Literacy: Making Sense of Community & World
- Aesthetic & Values: Art as Social Language
- The Everglades: Beginning to End
- Walk, Don't Run

Core III Requirement: Study Abroad Course (6 credits)

IDH 4007/4008 Peruvian Amazon: Environment, People, and Opportunity on a Rainforest Frontier 6

IDH 4007/4008 Cambodia & Vietnam: Their Place in American History 6

Electives (6 credits)

These credits can be earned either through taking another of the Honors seminars listed above, or through service-research courses offered by another unit. The list of such courses will change annually, based on the offerings of other units. The Honors College will determine which proposed courses from other units can be applied to the certificate.

For more information on the certificate, please visit our website <http://honors.fiu.edu/service-research>.
