Master of Arts in Asian Studies

The M.A. degree in Asian Studies is an interdisciplinary program that draws on faculty from the College of Arts and Sciences and professional schools at FIU. The courses are coordinated by Asian Studies, which also sponsors workshops, lectures, cultural events, and study abroad programs.

The master's program provides students with a rich learning experience about a fascinating and increasingly important region of the world, and is intended to enhance the student's competitiveness upon graduation. The program provides a multidisciplinary approach covering the philosophy, religion, art history, language and literature of Asia as well as issues in history, politics, geography, sociology/anthropology, and international relations.

The M.A. has two concentrations: International Political Economy of Asia, which emphasizes social scientific studies involving economics, international relations, politics, and sociology; and Asian Cultural Studies, which emphasizes the humanities and arts disciplinary approaches.

For further information please contact the Asian Studies office, located at SIPA 505, at asian@fiu.edu or at (305) 348-1914. Also, visit our website at: http://asian.fiu.edu.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must meet one of the following minimum requirements for admissions to the MAAS program:

1. 3.5 GPA in upper level undergraduate coursework;
2. 3.0 GPA in upper level undergraduate course work and 475 score on the verbal portion of the GRE;
3. MA in the humanities or social sciences from an accredited institution;
4. 3.0 GPA in upper level undergraduate course work and with appropriate language or study abroad background as determined by written examination or evaluated by the program faculty committee;
5. 3.0 GPA in upper level undergraduate course work and a 3.0 GPA or above in 9 hours of graduate courses as a special student in the program. (These nine hours may not be in Independent Study courses.); and
6. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.5 overall on the IELTS is required.

The above admission requirements are minimums and not all students meeting them are assured admission. Students with either a grade-point average or GRE score below the above minimums may still apply and request a waiver of those scores.

Degree Requirements (both concentrations)

The MAAS program offers two graduation exit options:

1. 30 credits - Completion of thesis project
2. 33 credits - Completion of a master's essay

Language Requirements

Students choosing the Master's Thesis option will be asked to demonstrate competence in an Asian language relevant to their thesis project when appropriate (e.g. for pre-modern studies or fieldwork research). Proficiency requirements will be determined by the thesis committee. Credits earned in meeting the language requirement will not count towards the credit hours required for the degree.

Core Courses: (6 credits)

ASN 5315  Topics in Modern Asia
ASN 5050  Methods in Asian Studies

Other Coursework: (18 credits)

A minimum of 12 credits are required in the main concentration. Students may receive credit through independent study, study abroad, or internship approved by the program advisor.

An additional research methods course in a discipline related to the student’s primary area of study may be taken as an elective, such as HIS 6059 (Historical Methods), INR 5615 (Research Design in International Relations), POS 5706 (Research Methodology), REL 6013 (Modern Analysis of Religion), REL 6935 (Seminar in Sacred Texts), SYA 6305 (Research Methods I), or equivalent.

Combined BA/MA in Asian Studies

The combined BA/MA degree program allows highly qualified undergraduate students to pursue an accelerated MA degree in Asian Studies. Students accepted into this program will be able to complete the MA degree as early as one year sooner than would otherwise be possible. Students accepted into the Asian Studies Honors track are particularly encouraged to apply for this program.

To be considered for admission to the combined bachelor’s/master’s degree program, students must have completed at least 75-90 credits in the bachelor’s degree program at FIU and meet the admissions criteria for the graduate degree program to which they are applying. Students need only apply once to the combined degree program, but the application must be submitted to Graduate Admissions before the student starts the last 30 credits of the bachelor’s degree program. A student admitted to the combined degree program will be considered to have undergraduate status until the student applies for graduation from their bachelor’s degree program. Upon conferral of the bachelor’s degree, the student will be granted graduate status and be eligible for graduate assistantships. Only 5000-level or higher courses, and no more than the number of credits specified by the program catalog, may be applied toward both degrees. A complete application requires:

- Current enrollment in BA program in Asian Studies at FIU
- Completion of 75-90 credits of undergraduate coursework
- Combined GRE score of 1000
- Overall GPA of 3.2
- One letter of recommendation
- Statement of purpose discussing interests in the field

Students should consult the graduate catalog and the Asian Studies website for a more comprehensive discussion of admission requirements (http://asian.fiu.edu).

The program gives students the opportunity to take up to 9 credits of graduate coursework in the second semester of their senior year that will count towards both the BA and the MA. Students may take up to three 5000-level or higher graduate courses in the second semester of their senior year and follow the regular MA curriculum after they earn their BA degree.

Undergraduate Senior Year
Fall Semester – apply to the program by the end of the semester
Spring Semester – take 12 graduate credits, including 9 graduate credits in 5000-level or higher courses

Graduate Program
Summer Semester – take 3 graduate credits (5000-level or higher)
Fall Semester – take 9 graduate credits (5000-level or higher)
Spring Semester – take 9 graduate credits (5000-level or higher, including thesis or master’s essay)

Students in the combined BA/MA program in Asian Studies must complete all other requirements for the MA degree in Asian Studies (please consult the graduate catalog and the Institute’s online graduate handbook). Students in this program have up to a year to complete the master’s degree after receipt of the bachelor’s degree. Students who fail to meet this year post BA requirement or who elect to leave the combined program at any time and earn only the BA degree will have the same access requirements to regular graduate programs as any other student, but will not be able to use the 9 graduate credits in both the bachelor’s and master’s degrees.

Combined MA in Asian Studies/Ph.D. in International Relations

The combined MA in Asian Studies/Ph.D. in International Relations program allows qualified graduate students to pursue both degrees simultaneously. To be accepted into this program, students must submit an application for the MA in Asian Studies/Ph.D. in International Relations by March 15 in the year in which they wish to begin their studies. Applicants must meet the admission eligibility requirements and follow the admission procedures for both programs.

Students must fulfill the requirements for both programs, and up to 33 credits may count for both degrees. To graduate, students must complete the requirements of the International Relations doctoral program, including the required 75 hours.

In addition to the requirements for the two degrees, during their first two years of enrollment in this dual degree program, students will enroll in the following course:
INR 5615 Research Design in International Relations
INR 5609 Contemporary Dynamics of International Relations
INR 6706 Political Economy of International Relations
