Master of Arts in Spanish

Admission Requirements

To be admitted into the Master’s degree program, a student must:

1. Hold a Bachelor’s degree in Spanish from an accredited university or college. Special cases, such as holders of a degree in a related field, will be evaluated individually by the Department.
2. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.5 overall on the IELTS is required.
3. Have attained a minimum 3.0 grade point average (B average), during the last two years of her/his undergraduate program as determined by the FIU Graduate Admissions Office.
4. Demonstrate the ability to speak Spanish with near-native fluency and to write in Spanish. Demonstrate the ability to read English with excellent proficiency. An examination may be necessary. Contact the Director of Graduate Study (305-348-2851: Modern Languages, FIU, Miami, FL, 33199). Students with deficiencies will be required to complete certain course work before beginning graduate study.
5. Apply for graduate admission to the Graduate Admissions Office and submit to the Department of Modern Languages the following documentation: a) two letters of recommendation from former professors in the format required by the Graduate Studies Committee, b) a resume, c) a statement of purpose in English or Spanish, addressing the candidate’s goals and objectives in pursuing a master’s degree in Spanish, and d) a writing sample in Spanish, preferably a term paper or thesis, of analytical nature, on a literary subject.

6. Receive approval of the departmental graduate committee. Admission is competitive and meeting all minimum requirements does not guarantee automatic entrance into the program.

Degree Requirements

The Master’s degree program consists of 33 semester hours of graduate level work. A maximum of six credits of graduate course work may be transferred into the program from other institutions, subject to the approval of the departmental graduate committee. Six core courses and three elective courses are required at the 5000-and 6000-level. Some courses have prerequisites which do not count toward the degree. All core courses in literature must be taken with or after SPW 5806. Courses taken before SPW 5806 are considered to be electives.

Core Courses: (18 credits)

Electives

A student must take at least nine graduate credits of electives, as follows: three in Spanish or Latin American literature, and six from one or more of the following areas: Spanish or Spanish American literature, Linguistics, Translation/Interpretation, or Culture of Spain, Latin America or Hispanics in the United States.

Graduation Requirements

To receive the M.A. degree in Spanish, a student must complete all the course work with a 3.0 GPA or higher, and receive a minimum grade of ‘B’ in every course. Upon completion of 27 graduate credits (core and elective courses), students will have the option of writing a thesis (equivalent to six credits), or taking two elective courses and writing a research paper. The thesis will be presented to an ad hoc committee chosen by the student and his or her advisor. The research paper must be submitted to a committee of two professors of the Department. Upon completion of 33 credits, the student will be required to take Comprehensive Examinations, based on course work and on the Department’s Graduate Reading List (the exams must be passed with a minimum grade of ‘B’; they may be taken no more than twice).

Combined BA/MA in Spanish

To be considered for admission to the combined bachelor’s/master’s degree program, students must have completed at least 75-90 credits in the bachelor's degree program at FIU and meet the admissions criteria for the graduate degree program to which they are applying. Students need only apply once to the combined degree program; but the application must be submitted to Graduate Admissions before the student starts the last 30 credits of the bachelor's degree program. A student admitted to the combined degree program will be considered to have undergraduate status until the student applies for graduation from their bachelor's degree program. Upon conferral of the bachelor's degree, the student will be granted graduate status and be eligible for graduate assistantships. Only 5000-level or higher courses, and no more than the number of credits specified by the program catalog, may be applied toward both degrees.

Admission Requirements

- Current enrollment in the BA in Spanish at FIU.
- Current GPA must be 3.5 or higher.
- Completed at least 75-90 credits of course work.
- Two letters of recommendation.
- A writing sample consisting of a research paper in Spanish of an analytical nature – preferably a term paper or thesis – on a literary subject.
- A resume.
- A statement of purpose, addressing the candidate’s goals and objectives in pursuing a master’s degree in Spanish.
- Approval of the Spanish Graduate Committee.

Completion Requirements

Required Courses for the BA: (33 credits)

- SPN 3301 Review Grammar and Writing* 3
- SPN 3343 Advanced Spanish for Native Speakers* 3
- SPN 3422 Advanced Grammar and Composition* 3
- SPW 3820 Peninsular Spanish Literature 3
- SPW 3130 Spanish American Literature 3
- SPN 3733 General Linguistics (or equivalent) 3
- One additional course in Spanish Linguistics 3
- One additional course in Spanish 3
- Spanish American Literature 3

*(Students who have advanced proficiency in Spanish may replace the six language credits with electives in Spanish at the 3000 or 4000 level with the written permission of their advisors).

Electives

Twelve credits of electives

Overlap

Nine credits will be taken at the 5000 or 6000 level and may be used to satisfy both the Bachelor’s and Master’s degree requirements.

Required Courses for the MA: (33 credits)

- SPW 5806 Methods of Literary Research 3
- FOL 5943 Foreign Language Teaching Methodology 3
- One course in either Medieval Spanish Literature 3
- Literature of the Golden Age 3
- One course in Peninsular Spanish Literature of the 19th or the 20th centuries 3
- Two courses in Spanish American Literature 6

Electives

Six graduate credits of electives, as follows: 3 in Spanish or Spanish American Literature, and 3 from one or more of the following areas: Spanish or Spanish American Literature, Linguistics, Translation/Interpretation, or Spanish American Culture.

Comprehensive Exams

The comprehensive examinations should be taken the semester immediately following the completion of all course work.

Doctor of Philosophy in Spanish

The doctoral program in Spanish offers students the opportunity to specialize in one of two major fields: Peninsular Spanish Literature or Spanish American Literature. Minors are available in Peninsular Spanish Literature, Spanish American Literature, and Hispanic Linguistics.

Admission Requirements

To be admitted to the doctoral program, a student must:

1. Hold a Bachelor’s degree in Spanish from an accredited college or university. Special cases, such as holders of a degree in a related field, will be evaluated individually by the Department.

2. Demonstrate the ability to speak, understand, read, and write in Spanish with near-native fluency. Demonstrate the ability to speak and read in English with excellent proficiency. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.5 overall on the IELTS is required.

3. Have attained a minimum 3.0 grade point average (B average), during the last two years of her/his undergraduate program as determined by the FIU Graduate Admissions Office, and submit GRE or EXADEP scores. Applicants with Master’s degrees are required to have a graduate GPA of 3.5. A GPA of 3.5 in graduate Spanish courses is expected in such cases.

4. Apply for graduate admission to the Admissions Office and submit to the Department of Modern Languages the following documentation: a) two letters of recommendation from former professors in the format required by the Graduate Studies Committee, b) a resume, c) a statement of purpose in English or Spanish, addressing the candidate’s goals and objectives in pursuing a doctorate in Spanish, and d) a writing sample in Spanish, preferably a term paper or thesis, of analytical nature, on a literary subject.

5. Receive approval of the departmental Graduate Studies Committee. Admission is competitive, and meeting all minimum requirements does not guarantee automatic entrance to the program.

Degree Requirements

The doctoral program consists of 90 semester hours of graduate level work beyond the Bachelor’s degree, distributed as follows: 66 graduate credits of courses and 24 credits of dissertation. Students holding Master of Arts degrees in Spanish or Hispanic Studies will be considered for admission and some or all of their graduate credits may be counted toward the doctoral degree after being evaluated and approved by the Graduate Studies Committee. Students will be able to transfer a maximum of 36 graduate credits from an earned graduate degree.

Core Courses: (12 credits)
All core courses must be taken as graduate courses offered by the university and may not be taken as independent studies:

1. SPW 5806 Methods of Literary Research
2. FOL 5943 Foreign Language Teaching Methodology
3. SPW 6718 Historiography of Literature
4. SPW 6825 Literary Theory and Criticism

Distribution Requirement: (15 credits)
All students must take:
One course in Medieval or Golden Age Peninsular Literature
One course in Peninsular Spanish Literature of the 18th, 19th or 20th century
One course in Colonial/19th century Spanish American Literature
One course in 20th century Spanish American Literature
One additional course in Spanish American Literature

Major Field: (18 credits)
All students must take at least 18 credits of electives in their elected field of specialization.

Minor Field: (12 credits)
Twelve credits of electives in the student’s chosen field (Peninsular Spanish Literature, Spanish American Literature, or Hispanic Linguistics).

Electives: (9 credits)
Students may choose from graduate courses in literature, linguistics, culture, and translation/interpretation.

Dissertation: (24 credits)

Graduation Requirements
To receive a Ph.D. in Spanish, a student must complete all courses with a GPA of 3.0 or higher, and receive a minimum grade of ‘B’ in every course. Before graduation the student must demonstrate a reading knowledge of a language other than English or Spanish, chosen by the student in consultation with her/his adviser. Upon completion of 33 graduate credits beyond the Bachelor’s degree, students must take a qualifying written examination which will determine whether they are permitted to continue their studies toward the doctorate or whether they should be terminated, with or without a master's degree. In the case of students registered for the master's degree, the M.A. comprehensives will also serve as a qualifying examination for the Ph.D. Following completion of the course work, students are required to take written and oral doctoral comprehensive examinations. They must be passed with a minimum grade of ‘B’ and may not be taken more than twice. A student is formally considered a doctoral candidate upon successful completion of the comprehensive examinations and the acceptance of a dissertation proposal. Students must write and successfully defend a doctoral dissertation before a committee of three faculty members, two of whom must be from the graduate program faculty.
