¹Six semester hours of English coursework in which the student is required to demonstrate college-level English skills through multiple assignments. Note: C or better is required for all coursework.

Courses which form part of the statewide articulation between the State University System and the Florida College System will fulfill the Lower Division Common Prerequisites.

For generic course substitutions/equivalencies for Common Program Prerequisites offered at community colleges, state colleges, or state universities, visit: http://www.flvc.org, See Common Prerequisite Manual.

Common Prerequisites

| ENC 1101     | Writing and Rhetoric I |
| ENC 1102     | Writing and Rhetoric II |

Recommended Courses

| AML 2010     | Survey of American Literature I |
| AML 2022     | Survey of American Literature II |
| ENL 2012     | Survey of British Literature I |
| ENL 2022     | Survey of British Literature II |

Students admitted to the university are admitted directly to their chosen major. Students are expected to make good progress based on critical indicators, such as GPA in specific courses or credits earned. In cases where students are not making good progress, a change of major may be required. Advisors work to redirect students to more appropriate majors when critical indicators are not met.
Other Degree Requirements

ENG 2012 Approaches to Literature

Students choosing to major in English should take Approaches to Literature (ENG 2012) while completing the University Core Curriculum; ENG 2012 is an option for Humanities with Writing. For English majors, ENG 2012 is a pre-requisite/corequisite for upper-division literature courses.

Upper Division Requirements

(36 hours in 3000- and 4000-level courses)

One course within each of the following seven areas or historical periods:
- Medieval Literature (to 1500)
- British Literature 1500-1660 or Shakespeare
- British Literature 1660-1900
- Modern British Literature (1900 to Present)
- American Literature to 1860
- American Literature from 1860
- Multicultural Literature (African American, Jewish, literature of exile, etc.)

(Note: This list of periods/areas is not a list of course titles; students should visit the English Dept. office (or go online to http://english.fiu.edu/advising) for a list of courses which fulfill each period/area requirement.)

Linguistics: (One course, three hours):
- LIN 3013 Introduction to Linguistics
- LIN 4680 Modern English Grammar

Electives: (12)

Upper division electives in writing, film, literature, and/or linguistics. The English Department recognizes a continuing obligation to insure that its majors write well. The Chairperson may require any English major to take the appropriate composition course. English majors may choose to take a general program of English studies or may select one of the Department's three areas of emphasis: literature, language and linguistics, or creative writing. Majors should choose their English courses and electives in consultation with their advisors, especially upon entering the program.

Additional Approved Electives: (24)

Students should consult with a departmental advisor.

Bachelor of Arts in English: English Education Major

Combined BA/MA in Linguistics

To be considered for admission to the combined bachelor’s/master’s degree program, students must have completed at least 75-90 credits in the bachelor’s degree program at FIU and meet the admissions criteria for the graduate degree program to which they are applying. Students need only apply once to the combined degree program, but the application must be submitted to Graduate Admissions before the student starts the last 30 credits of the bachelor’s degree program. A student admitted to the combined degree program will be considered to have undergraduate status until the student applies for graduation from their bachelor’s degree program. Upon conferral of the bachelor’s degree, the student will be granted graduate status and be eligible for graduate assistantships. Only 5000-level or higher courses, and no more than the number of credits specified by the program catalog, may be applied toward both degrees.
Admission Requirements

• Enrollment in undergraduate program in English, Spanish, French, or Portuguese at FIU.
• Must have completed 75-90 credits.
• Must have completed LIN 3013/LIN 3010 General Linguistics, LIN 4680 Modern English Grammar, FRE 3780 French Phonetics, or SPN 3733 General Linguistics with a grade of “A”.
• Current GPA of 3.2 or higher.
• Two letters of faculty recommendation.
• A 2-4 page statement of purpose, explaining academic plans and goals.

• The MA will be awarded after all MA requirements of the Linguistics Program and the BA requirements are completed.

Minor in English

Students majoring in any other discipline may minor in English.

There are several advantages for obtaining this minor. First, students expand their knowledge of literature written in English, deepening the liberal arts portion of their undergraduate education. Second, in the courses that the Department of English offers, writing skills are emphasized, so students should learn to develop complex and sophisticated arguments through the analysis of literary work. The training students receive in these courses can prepare them for careers in which writing and editing are of the greatest significance, or in which critical thinking skills are valued.

Requirements

Fifteen hours in 3000 and 4000-level courses

Period Courses: (Two courses - Six hours)

1. One course in British literature before 1800
   or
   One course in American literature before 1860

2. One course in British literature after 1800
   or
   One course in American literature after 1860

Note: In addition to these courses, the Department may designate specific courses each semester which will fulfill these requirements
