The major provides an opportunity to study how women's lives have been shaped by historical, political, economic, literary, social, and cultural contexts, and the meaning of gender difference in diverse societies and cultures. The courses are coordinated by the Center for Women's and Gender Studies, and are open to students of all genders, sexual orientations, and sex and gender presentations. This field of study explores sex-based bias throughout society- in the workplace, in school, and at home. Equal importance is given to the intersection of gender identities with nationality, race, ethnicity, class, age, and sexual orientation. Students may formulate a program of study consonant with their interests and goals. The major is an excellent preparation for graduate study in most fields and for careers in both the public and private sectors. A background in women's and gender studies develops critical thinking skills and offers knowledge relevant to understanding the contemporary world.

For further information and/or to seek academic advising for the women's and gender studies major, visit the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies in DM-212 or call (305) 348-2408 or send email to: wstudies@fiu.edu. We welcome your inquiry.

Bachelor of Arts in Women’s and Gender Studies

Lower Division Preparation

Students admitted to the university are admitted directly to their chosen major. Students are expected to make good progress based on critical indicators, such as GPA in specific courses or credits earned. In cases where students are not making good progress, a change of major may be required. Advisors work to redirect students to more appropriate majors when critical indicators are not met.

Common Prerequisite Courses and Equivalencies

¹All Florida College System students are encouraged to complete the Associate in Arts degree.

Courses which form part of the statewide articulation between the State University System and the Florida College System will fulfill the Lower Division Common Prerequisites.

For generic course substitutions/equivalencies for Common Program Prerequisites offered at community colleges, state colleges, or state universities, visit: http://www.flvc.org. Search Program Listing by Alphabetic Order.

Upper Division Program

The major requires 30 hours of upper division coursework. Students who elect to major in women's and gender studies are strongly encouraged to declare a minor in another area of concentration or a double major. The major requires a core concentration of three courses and seven electives for a total of 10 courses. Any core concentration course that is not taken for the core requirement may be taken as an elective. Refer to full course descriptions below or in the program sections of this catalog related to the course prefix.

Courses that fulfill these requirements will be noted in each semester’s Women’s and Gender Studies course flyer. These courses will constitute part of the 30-credit requirement, and they may be core courses or electives.

Genre and topic courses are offered regularly and new courses are periodically added to the curriculum. The elective selection may include one course on ethnicity, class, sexuality, or race that is not specifically a women’s or gender studies course. Student programs are coordinated with designated faculty advisors. The program also offers an academic certificate in women's and gender studies. For further information, refer to the certificate page at the end of the College of Arts, Sciences and Education section.
