The English Department offers three graduate degree programs: Creative Writing, Linguistics and an English degree which offers a choice of tracks, Literature or Writing or Rhetoric. The descriptions of the Creative Writing and the Linguistics programs can be found under their respective headings in this catalog.

Master of Arts in English

To be admitted into the Master's program in English, a student must meet the University's graduate admission requirements and have:

1. A bachelor's degree in English or a related field;
2. A minimum 3.0 undergraduate grade point average;
3. International graduate student applicants whose native language is not English are required to submit a score for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or for the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A total score of 80 on the iBT TOEFL or 6.5 overall on the IELTS is required.
4. Two letters of recommendation from undergraduate or graduate professors;
5. A personal essay; and
6. Those who might be chosen for teaching assistantships will be interviewed by at least one member of the committee.

Common Degree Requirements

The Master's degree program consists of 30 semester hours of course work at graduate level (course numbers 5000 or above) and a thesis (6 credits). A maximum of six graduate semester hours may be transferred into the program subject to the approval of the graduate committee.

Required Courses

ENG 5048	Literary Theory	3
ENC 5703	Rhetorical Traditions	3

Thesis

LIT 6970	Master's Thesis	6
